2026 World Congress Sponsorship Program

Face Time 2026: Bringing Together the Many Voices of the Building Industry

Facade Tectonics World Congress is a curated speaker program that includes diverse voices in the creation of advanced building facade systems, showcasing new perspectives on the opportunities for innovation in the design and delivery of the building skin.

The Facade Tectonics Institute 2026 World Congress will include speaking presentations, panel discussions and exhibitors. A minimum of two tracks are planned over two consecutive days, which will include 25 sessions and more than 75 speaker presentations. The annual Facade Tectonics World Congress combines the art, science and technology of the building skin with an unparalleled networking opportunity from the domestic and international building community.
